The Midnight Hour theme will be featured in Alamodome performance for state championship. Midnight Hour theme takes Brahma band to state

By Mike Jones

The Mighty Brahma Band's performance at the UIL Area Marching Competitions Oct. 25 in Alice was so outstanding that H.M. King High School was designated as one of the bands to compete for the state championship.

The band was to perform around 10:15 p.m., but Mother Nature delayed the last 12 competing bands by about an hour, including the Brahma band.

A norther blew in, knocking off electricity at about 7:22 p.m.

Lightning, winds and heavy rains Photos cleared the stadium for about 45 minutes to an hour, then everything came back on and the rain cleared, Mike Jones producing much cooler weather.

The Brahma Band did an excellent job on the wet soggy field, and it didn't stop the band from performing some fast moves.
