Mr. Cain,
Thank you for everything you have taught me I music. I have learned so much. You are an awesome teacher. I'm sorry for all the disappointment I've caused. I am staying in band next year mainly because you have made me realize how great music is. Thank you again.

Mr. Cain,
You're the greatest band teacher ever. This year has been so awesome! I have been so blessed to have you and Mr. Bade helping me. I'm going to remember everything you guys have taught me and I'm going to use it later in life. I'm sorry about any times I've been a disappointment to you in any way and I'm going to try way harder next year. Well thanks for the fantastic year in band; I can't wait to be back next year. Thanks again.

Mr. C-
You are the most awesome band director I've ever met, and you've always been there to help me w/anything, I' going to miss you in High School!

Even before class those Brass players are hard at work!

WHAT WE THINK!

My Mr. C,
I really appreciate everything you have done for me. I hope next year is just as good as this year!

Band in the Morning!

You are the most awesome band person ever. Gabe

The only reason I wanted to be in band is because I knew I'd have great teachers. You have inspired me to keep playing my bassoon, and start the bass clarinet. Thank you for all you have taught me -Stephanie-

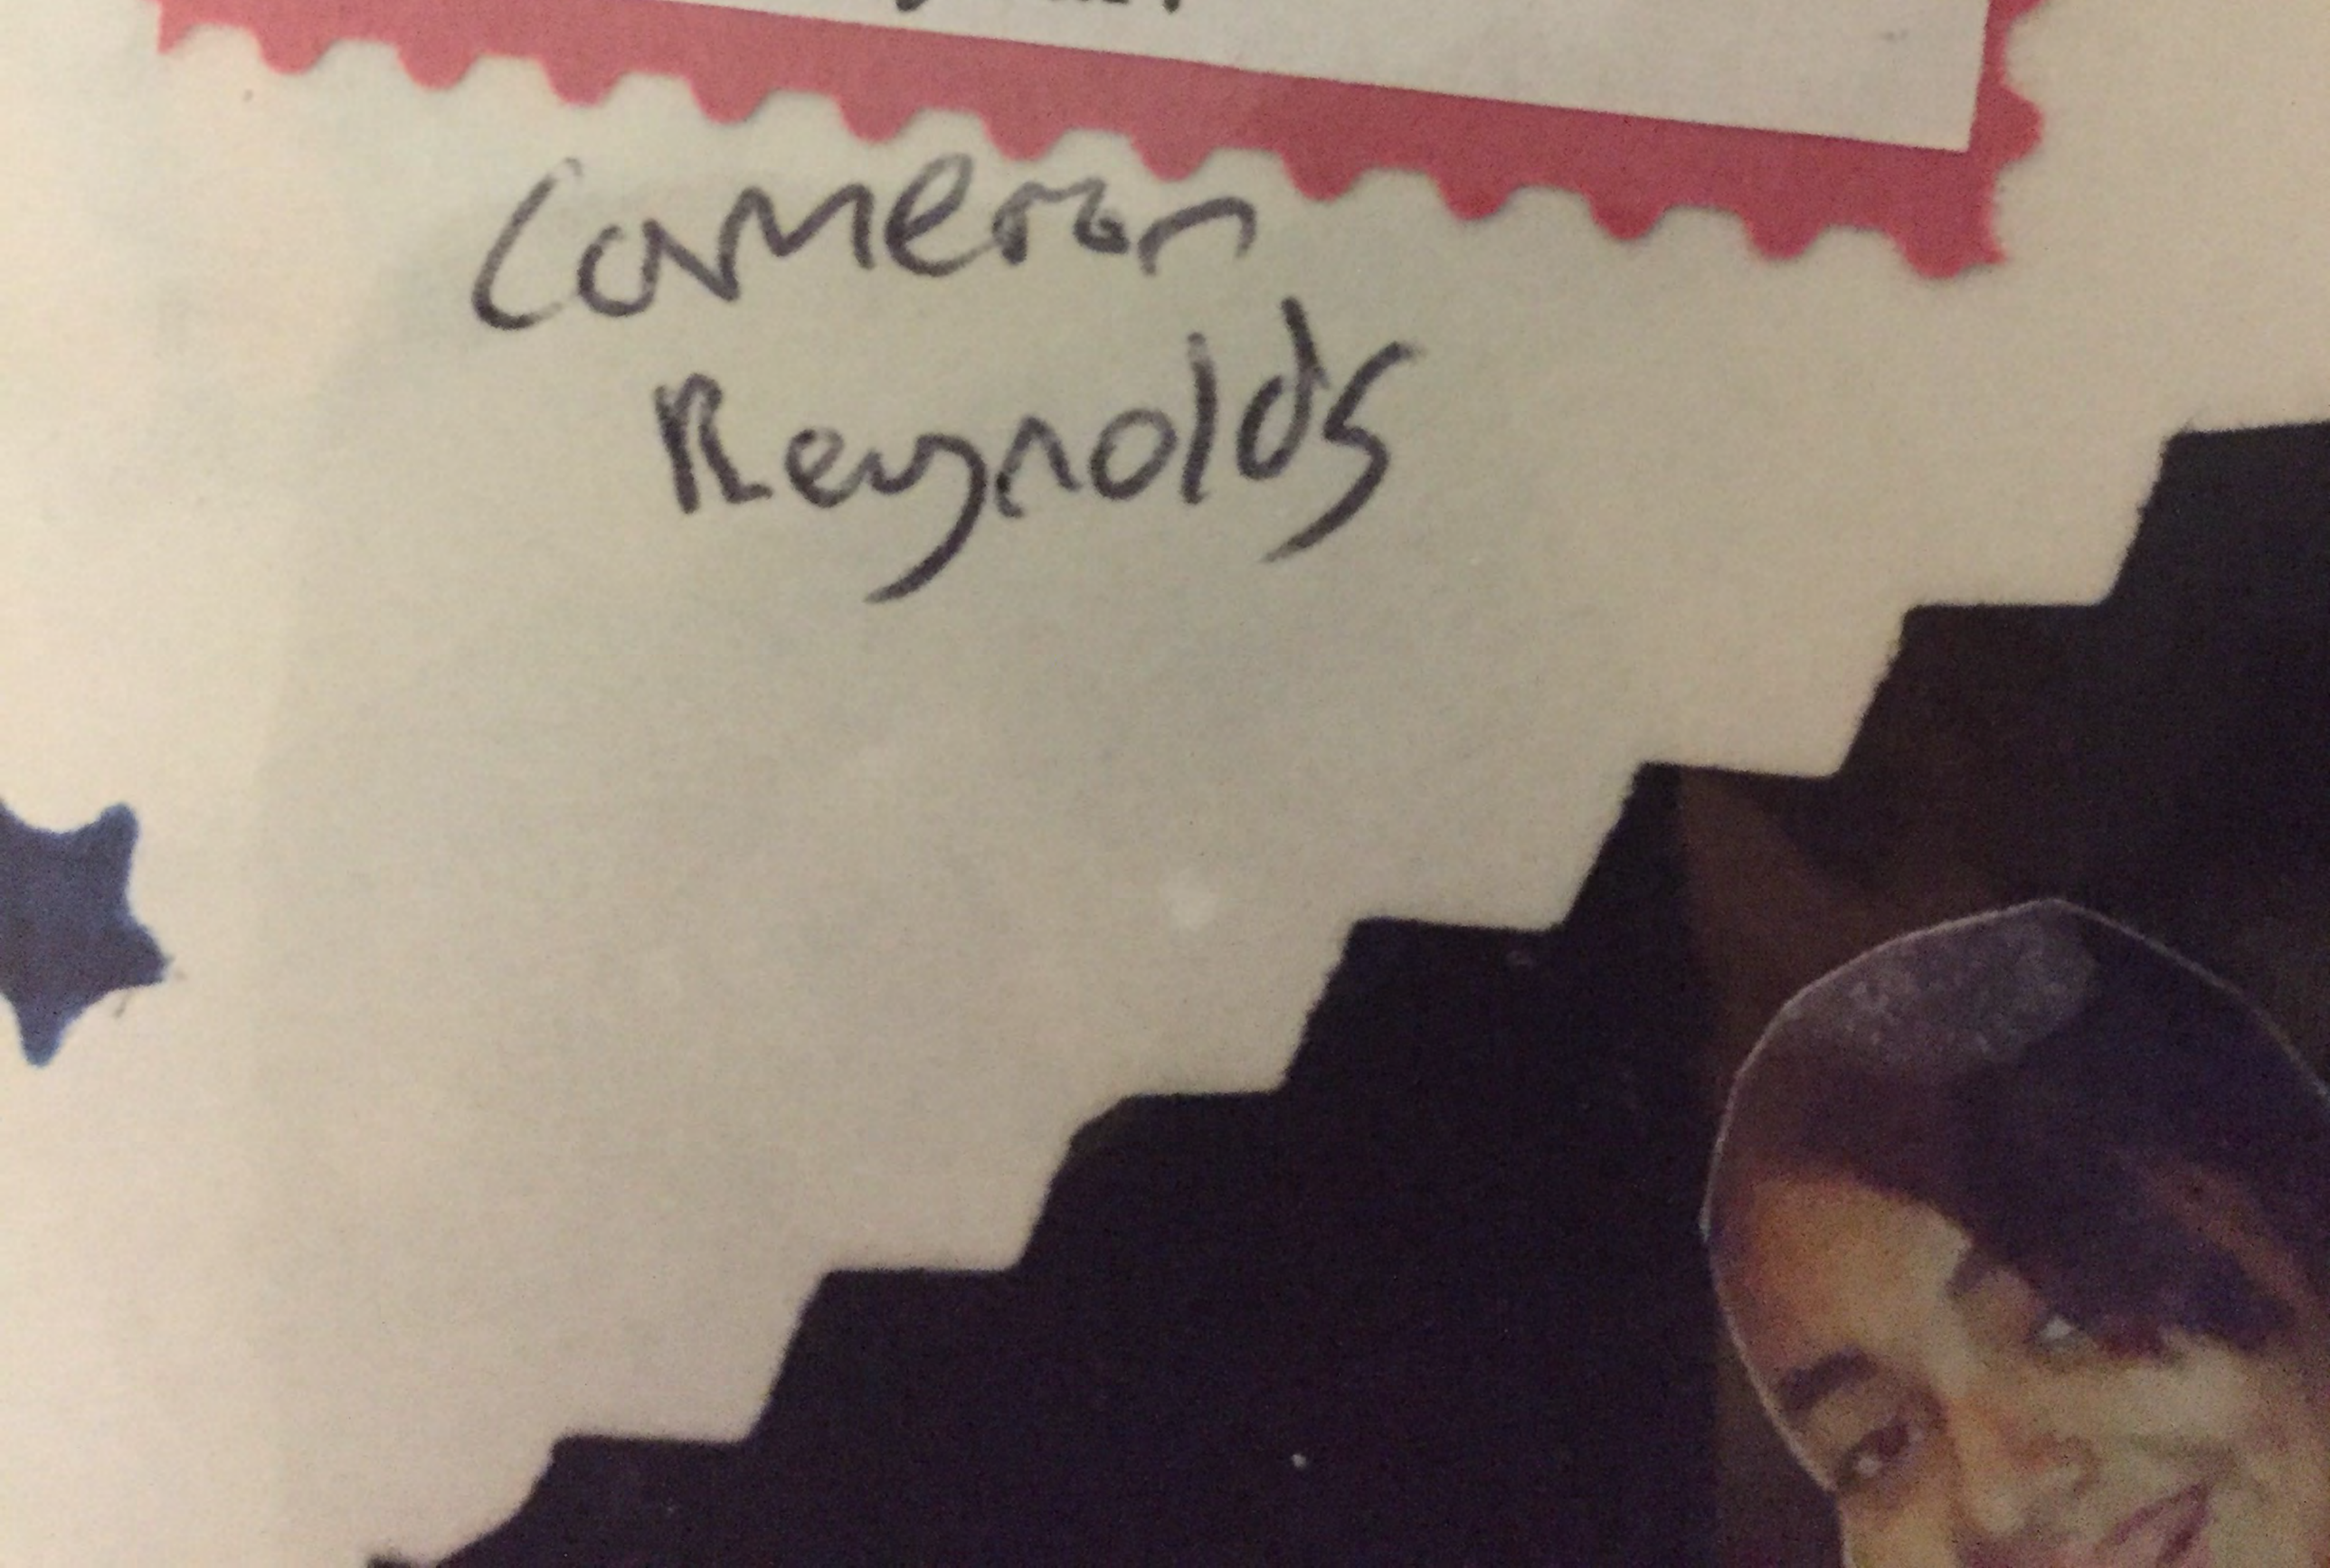

Thank you Mr. Cain for taking the time to teach me how to play my flute better. You are the best band director I have ever had and I hope that you have a nice life. - Amy -

Dear Senor Cain,
I was really hyper, loud, and obnoxious this year {amen to that}, but I did become a better trumpeter. I couldn't touch an "A" note at the beginning of the year. Now I can play an "A" easy! Sorry I was so annoying! :)

Dear Mr. Cain,
This year has been very busy.
I didn't think I was very good, but you helped me
become a better Trombonist.
